

The Toronto Alumni Chapter at the Schulich School of Business proudly presents

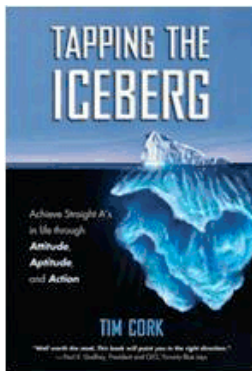

Networking: One Degree of Separation
featuring world-class speaker, author and master motivator
Tim Cork

Thursday, March 5, 2009
6:00 pm to 9:00 pm
Toronto Board of Trade, East Dining Room
(located in First Canadian Place - on street level by Adelaide Street entrance)
100 King Street West
Toronto, ON

Networking - Possibly Your Most Valuable Tool in Uncertain Times

Connecting with people is a critical element in managing our careers and creating success in our lives. Join us for an evening that will allow you to take more control using this key skill. You'll learn

- How to network effortlessly everyday
- How to double your network
- Effective networking communication techniques
- The power of attitude and first impressions
- The number one rule to networking and success in life
- How networking enhances career security and advancement in today's challenging business environment.

Tim Cork is President of NexCareer and author of "Tapping the Iceberg" a new book that will help you tap into your unlimited potential through the Straight A's Philosophy: Attitude, Aptitude and Action. He has been featured in the Globe & Mail in articles such as "Rules to win the networking game." The Globe calls Tim "The Networking Guru" and the Toronto Sun calls him "The Career Guru." He has vast experience as a performance coach training executives and their teams in a variety of industries.

$35.00 ticket includes non-alcoholic drinks and a light food offering.
RSVP by February 25th.

Special Bonus: Tim Cork will be available to sign his book "Tapping the Iceberg" which will be offered at a discount for all attending Schulich Alumni.