

Leadership Workshop Series

Networking: One Degree of Separation

Tim Cork, President, NexCareer, Author of "Tapping the Iceberg"

Speaker: Tim Cork

Tuesday February 5, 2008

4:30pm - 6:30pm

National Club

303 Bay Street, Blake Lounge, 3rd Floor

Connecting with people is a critical element in managing our careers and creating success in our lives. Join us for a networking session that will allow you to take more control using this key skill.

In this session you will learn:

- About networking and practicing it every day
- How to double your network
- Effective networking communication techniques
- The power of attitude and first impressions
- How to soar with the eagles
- #1 rule to networking and success in life

Tim has been featured in the Globe & Mail in articles such as "Rules to win the networking game." The Globe calls Tim "The Networking Guru" and The Toronto Sun calls him "The Career Guru". In his latest book "Tapping the Iceberg", a national best seller, Tim focuses on helping you unleash your possibilities through his Straight A's philosophy in life ... Attitude, Aptitude & Action.

He has vast experience as a performance coach training executives and their teams in a variety of industries

Registration

Eligible for 1 PD credit hour

All tickets include a copy of Tim Cork's book "Tapping the Iceberg,"

Members: $20
(Plus GST)

Guests/Non-Members: $40
(Plus GST)

After Feb 4th, 2008 at 1:00 p.m. a $10 (plus GST) late charge will apply per person

Members: Please register online at www.torontocfa.ca

Non-Members: Contact eventregistration@torontocfa.ca